

It is our history. Let's preserve it!

The Libertarian Party is working on preserving our historical materials and posting them online at LPedia.org.

We have a deep ideological history and knowing that we stand on the shoulders of giants and continue in paths laid down by others helps to ground and inspire the eager new Libertarians we have brought in and re-ignite the fire in the belly of those who have been working for years.

Other than the sheer love of our history and our principles, there is a very practical side to this work. There are very few things that are completely new and this party has written on freedom issues over decades. So, why should affiliates and candidates have to re-invent the wheel when we are asked about how we would end taxation, defend gun rights, or even.... build the roads?

With these archives available, Libertarians could re-construct and tailor press releases and talking points without having to re-expend precious resources. Also, knowing history keeps us from repeating bad history.

Oftentimes we believe we have some "new idea" or solution but if we only knew our history we could know it has been tried before and where it might not have worked---and thus save ourselves from repeating past mistakes.

Please donate using this form or online at lp.org/historical-preservation to help preserve and publish LP historical documents and manage LPedia.org.
